MRS. RHODES QUITS Bull Charges Automobiles Owner Forced to Kill Him

Objects to Restrictions Placed on Use of School Amusement Centers.

Mrs. Susie Root Rhodes, supervisor of municipal playgrounds, today announced she had abandoned, for this season, her efforts to have school playgrounds opened in ineghborhoods where there are few nunicipal playgrounds.

municipal playgrounds.

Mrs. Rhodes, who is a member of the Board of Education, at a recent meeting endeavored to get that body to grant the playground office permission to use some of the school playgrunds.

Her reason for abandoning the plan, she stated today, was that E. L. Thurston, Superintendent of Schools, had allowed her the use of only one or two of the playgrounds "for experimental purposes" and had placed restrictions about the use of these.

The principal restriction, Mrs. Rhodes said, was that of compelling the closing of the grounds at 4 o'clock, because janitors left at that hour.

Mrs. Rhodes, in making her plea to the board, said that the sixty school playgrounds were closed during the summer. She pointed out that they could be opened to advantage, especially for smaller children, with comparatively little equipment.

A number of volunteers already had been enfisted for the work on the school playgrounds, the supervisor stated.

The effort to get use of the school playgrounds by the municipal playground office marks another stage in the long standing contorversy between that office and the Board of Education regarding the control, in summer, of school playgrounds.

200 Cow Persons Hit Western Trail

Ranch Show Leaves New York After Losing $70,000 in Venture.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.-Out West they sing a song, the refrain of which "Bury me not on the lone puh-rar

Last night about 200 cowboys, cowgirls, and other functionaries of the cow country who hit the chair car trails westward were ready to reconsider and westward were ready to reconsider and content to live and die and be buried on the "lone puh-rar-ree." The long postponed departure of "The Stampede" artists has been accomplished.

The ranch folk after six days of benefit performances at the Sheepshead Hay Speedway cleared $7,000, sufficient to see them as far as Allentown. Pa. There they show on Monday and Tuesday, and they hope to realize enough to negotiate the distance between Allentown and Kansas City. There they will exhibit for a week and trust the gate receipts will carry them safely back to their native buffalo grass.

Before leaving last night Charles B. Irwin, manager of the show, sold 100 cow ponies and 150 steers. The show lost $70,000 here.

MRS. BEECHER IS GRANTED DIVORCE

Grand-Nephew of Great Preacher Notified of Decree.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.-Robert Living-Reecher, a grandnephew of Henr Ward Beecher, has been served with papers, notifying him that his wife, Mrs. Annie M. T. Beecher, had received a final decree of divorce from Supreme Court Justice Charles H. Kelby, in rooklyn.

The action was tried in the same court The action was tried in the same court house in which the suit of Theodore Tilton for $100,000 against Henry Ward Beecher for the alleged alienation of the affection of Mrs. Tilton was tried in 1874. Mrs. Beecher alleged in her complaint that Mr. Beecher was guilty of misconduct with Mabel C. Moore.

She also alleged that from January 1, 1912, until the beginning of her action in June, 1914, her husband was constantly in the company of Mabel C. Moore.

Moore.
Mr. Beecher, who is a son of the late Charles McCullouch Beecher, of this city, and was graduated from Princeton University in 1898, appeared in court and testified that his net income was 18,000 a year, derived from trust funds left by his father and mother. He told Justice Kelby that he did not wish to defend his wife's suit.

Before her marriage Mrs. Beecher was Annie M. Trounce. They were married in Buffalo in 1904.

ACID EATS WAY INTO MAN AND KILLS HIM

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 20.-While carolic acid was eating its way into the lesh, George McCrea, twenty-three, held fiesh, George McCrea, twenty-three, held to his seat in a crowded treet car. Four hour later he died in his home.

Carbolic acid by absorption is given by Coroner Dr. J. Norman White as the cause of death.

McCrea was employed as a clerk by the Lackawanna and was on his wy home at noon with a bottle of crholic acid to be used as a disinfectant.

The cork came out of the bottle which he was carrying in his hip pocket and the acid ate its way through the pores and affected the heart and lungs.

Owner Forced to Kill Him

WARREN, Aug. 20 .- Fred Campbell of this city, driving an automobile in Franklin township, was charged by a Holstein bull owned by James Armstrong. Campbell attempted to avoid the collision by swerving when he saw the animal headed for him with lowered head.

The bull was struck a glancing blow and thrown in the ditch. It was so in-jured it had to be killed. One headlight of the car was broken.
